his papers which he had shown the said Mulhare upon which the said Lord ordered the said Skinner's Boat and hands on board the Skinner again for the Commission which was accordingly done and upon their return again on Board the said Brig with smoaking Wrapped up in an hank. chief which the said Mulhare receiving from his own Boats people he carried down to the Brig's Captain then in his Cabin Some little time after which the said Mulhare returned upon Deck and took to his Boat & said he would a Examine his Crew in order to which the said Brig's Captain did call his People upon Deck accordingly & the said Boat Hailed the said Brig and desired her Captain Carraud to Come on board the said Skinner and then sending the said Skinner's Boat on board the said Brig the said Carraud the said Brig's Master went on board the said Skinner and Came with his papers Upon this Mulhare Hailed the said Brig and desired that the Master would make Sail after him Upon which his Examinant Answered that neither his Examinant or any of the said Brig's Crew should touch a Rope to Work the said Vessel but he must send his own people on board Upon which the said Mulhare sent his Boat on Board the said said Brig for two Outlandish men the said Mulhare had allowed there when coming on board Upon which this Examinant ordered all the said Brig's Crew to get into the Boat to go on board the said Skinner this Examinant saying he did not understand their Crew's being separated and to go but in this manner that when one went they would all go and the said Crew getting into the said Boat as well as this Examinant they were all according rowed on board the said Skinner the said Boat for said
