and Attachments by way of Execution), which cannot be regularly ffs^d. by the Cred^s. agst. Lands vested in the Law of 1747, still leaves all the Inconveniencies attending Cred^s. with regard to Lands, which they were liable to before: It is therefore proposed that a Bill be brot. in to Parl^t. to have them all the advantages of the Statute Merch^t. or Staple provided except that all the Lands shall not be taken in where a part are sufficient, with a power to ffs^d. them instead of Extending the Lands at their Annual Value, to set them up to Sale, paying the Cred^s. Debt returning the Surplus if any to the Debtor or his Representatives upon the plan of that part of the Law in March 1755.
