Grounds for judging of y^e^ real Character of a Man, whom he has honour'd with his Confidence & Favour, and who be able to make a fair Estimate of the Merit of his past as well as future Representations. -

The End of this Address to your Excellency is, that an Examination may be had into this Affair before your Excellency & his Lordship's Council, and that the Rev^d^ M^r^ Bennett Allen, his Lordship's Agent, may have timely Notice of the Meeting, that he may come prepar'd with all his Evidence to support the Allegations contained in his printed Paper, abovemention'd. -

I shall trouble your Excellency no further at present than to deny in y^e^ most solemn Manner, that I had any Hand in writing, advising or publishing directly or indirectly the Piece, inserted in y^e^ Maryland Gazette signed A Parishioner of all Saints, & that I know not who is y^e^ Author of it, and that y^e^ reputed Author is to me an entire Stranger. - As this matters one of M^r^ Allen's Charges, I just mention it, that he may come prepar'd with Proofs on that Head also -

I beg your Excellency's Pardon for the Trouble of this long Letter, and am. Sir,

Sep^r^ 26^th^ 1760 -

Y^r^ Excellency's most obed^t^ & very humble Serv^t^

Walter Dulany
