be corrected otherwise at at a less Expence than by running a New Line y^e pensylv^a Comiss^rs present could not point out any other Method. there remains no proper Method that the pensylv^a Comiss^rs know of for calculating the Course of the Tangent Line t ascertaining the [redacted] in the Peripheary of the Circle y^t the Line last run be rejected as oppressive. as to the real Injuries which the Inhabitants may suffer by having Vistoes cut thro their Woods the [redacted] Comiss^rs determined at all Events to prom: :ente that [redacted] reasonable Compensation should be made them jointly by the Proprietaries of both Provinces presuming the Expence occasioned thereby will be but as a Drop in the Ocean in comparison of the other accruing Expences —

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.