

Delegates of the other States in Congress assembled, Copies thereof signed by yourselves, or by such of you as may be present at the time of the delivery, to the intent and purpose that the Copies aforesaid may be communicated to our Brethren of the United States, and the Contents of the said Declaration taken into their serious and candid Consideration.

Lastly we desire and instruct you to move at a proper time that these Instructions be read to Congress by their Secretary and entered on the Journals of Congress we have spoken with Freedom, as becomes freemen, and we sincerely wish, that these our representations may make just an impression on that Assembly as to induce them earnestly to endeavour to suppress the abuses pointed out in the course of these Instructions. And to make such Addition to the Articles of Confederation as may bring about a permanent Union.

Resolved that the said Instructions be read to Congress by their Secretary and entered on the Journals of Congress we have spoken with Freedom, as becomes freemen, and we sincerely wish, that these our representations may make just an impression on that Assembly as to induce them earnestly to endeavour to suppress the abuses pointed out in the course of these Instructions. And to make such Addition to the Articles of Confederation as may bring about a permanent Union.
