

Mr. Randall with four thousand pounds for supplying the Maryland Officers with certain necessaries - He called upon them the other Day to exchange $4201 Dol. which he had received of the Officers of those two divisions which are directed by Congress to be called by the first of June. - The Delegates were at some loss what to do - The money would not pass at all in some places, where he wanted to buy it out, and in none, without a very low discount - It subject the State to a certain loss, when it was in their power to prevent it, could not be justified - They therefore concluded to exchange, out of the money belonging to the State, the 4201 Dollars for other divisions, and directed Mr. Randall to send the Dollars as exchanged to you - The Delegates had no authority to put it in the Loan Office, and were of necessity obliged to direct him to forward the money to you - This step they hope will meet with your approbation. -

The Delegates have been informed, that the State has granted to each of their commissioned Officers, one hundred and fifty pounds - They have repeated applications made to them by the Officers
