for the guard — they have not their wages & them and taken them under — Shou there are enemies to arise this favour of their Country, and if it is in your power to send it forward to the care of the Delegates — it will be doing them a signal service — Every thing is exciting and the women they have no other hardship of staying out their Money the only advantage they will derive from it

Congress received letters yesterday from Gal Lincoln and Howe as late as the 4th Inst. — Our affairs do not wear a flattering aspect in that quarter — The Enemy have at length discovered our weak point, and are taking advantage of it. Their fleet and army to the Southward penetrated Lincoln thirty miles up on the 29th landed within two Miles of Savannah Town. A Disposition of our little band was made by Gal Howe to engage them — The Contest was short — The great superiority of the Enemy soon compelled our People to retreat — The Enemy force is computed at three Thousand commanded by Col
