

Campbell every brave and gallant Officer - Our own side not exceed five hundred, - the loss we have sustained is not accurately known - Some are killed, which is a little surprising, as the retreat was effected by order a very heavy fire from four miles this morning. - General Howe has taken post at Mincing on this side the Delaware River where he means to make the left defence, his small force will enable him to do, till the arrival of fresh兵卒 - I despair of soon having a force sufficient to oppose the Enemy; many of the inhabitants and some of high rank in Georgia have joined them - there will no doubt follow them and take advantage of a proclamation which the Enemy have published.
 But the greatest source of Danger, in the opinion of strength they were probably derived, from the black inhabitants - Some, we have some reason to believe, has been sent into that Country, for such purposes; and in my own opinion, if they are inclined to prosecute the Measures, with a thorough view of honor and Humanity, they will give considerable strength.

I am Sir with sincerity and affection your Obedient Servant
 Genl. J. Mifflin
