232 To all to whom it may concern

Whereas Danl. Wolstenholme Esq. Collecter of his Majestys Customs on North Potomack — did by his Letter Addressed to the Committee of Observation, for the County of St. Marys dated July 1st. 1776 — Request a Passport to Enable him with Safety to himself and security to his Property, to depart this Province to Great Britain for the sake of his health whenever an Opportunity Offered; And his private Concerns would permit

Which being Read

It was thereupon Resolved Unanimously —

That the said Danl. Wolstenholme Esq. Have Leave to depart this Province (with his Effects) Unmolested) To Great Britain At any time hereafter, as shall by him be judged most Convenient for his Health and private concerns, And that the Chairman make out a Passport to be delivered to the said Danl. Wolstenholme Esq. agreable to the said Resolve

This is therefore to require you, that you suffer the said Danl. Wolstenholme Esq., Unmolested either in Person or Property, to depart this Province for great Britain At any time hereafter as shall by him be judged most Convenient; agreeable to the Honour of the Afd. Resolve

Given under my hand and Seal of the County this 1 day of July Annoque Domini 1776.
