Gent. Yorke Nov. 23. 1776.

We wrote you on the 2. Inst. by Capt Conway who sailed the 4th with a Cargoe consisting of Muskets, Powder, Woolens, Linnens & Salt to the amount of £29 6s. 8p. as the Invoice, which we hope will be soon safe in store with you. We have received your favd. of the 29th. by Capt. Patterson who we have supplyed with sundry Necessaries for his Vessell amounting to £. — Sterl.

We are glad to find you were making out some Vessells for us — our Creditors are growing importunate & unless paid off soon will be exceedingly clamourous & troublesome — We can with truth assure that no men can be more desirous to serve their Country than we have shewn Ours to be, & we would immediately to the Amount of the 25000£ in Articles as are wanted, were there a possibility of procuring a penny that — Every Man who has Money here knows too well the advantage of sending it home in Goods.

This being the Case, our sole dependance must be on your remittances from your, which we doubt not of your disposition to forward as quickly as possible; so soon as our old scores are settled out we can with more Confidence & Facility
