Sirs Baltimore January 9 — 1777

This Day the Ship was Sold at 4400 Pounds Md as far as 4350 and as yr Never Told Me any thing about her Sale Might But Not to Go to far Private yr Some time ago about her But Not Receving yr answer to that Matter Did Not Now how to Act I Shall Lade the Brig as fast as Posible with Tobacco Flour and Bread the Carpenters are Overhalling her Shave Pork and Bread now for the Defence and to Leave for Other Vessells

Stated On the Consell of War about the Cabble from Capt Larkin January But Do Nothing in it but that Capt Hammond Consent and Lee Would Not agree to Part with his Cabble at any Rate, so that there Could Be Nothing Done Pleas Inale if Must Purchase any Other Vessell from you Humble Servt

Peter Hollingsworth

Consulted Capt Joseph Nicolson who has an the Spot and Lee appear'd of My Conduct as to the Ship —
