Elizabeth Dewit wife to Thomas Dewit Keeper of the Prison made Oath that she heard John Ross drink success to Lord Howe & that Mr. Ross appeard a little Groggy at the time

101 Daniel Curtis made Oath that he heard John Ross Drink Confusion to Lord Howe and all his proceedings in the Prison, that the Prisoners refusing to drink the said Toast. Ross told them if they would not drink his Toast they should not drink his Toddy & then set down the Bowle then the Prisoners cal'd for another Bowle & drank confusion to Gen.l Washington & all his proceedings. the Witness saith that Ross appeared to be a little in Liquor that this was on the Wednesday Thursday or Friday of the Court before last

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND
101

Willm Spencer made Oath that some time before the last Election Mr. Ross came to him to write an advertisement Offering himself as a Candidate for the Office of Sheriff. that upon the deponents asking him if he was worth One thousand Pounds and Willing to take the Oath prescribed in the fifty fifth Section of the Constitution, he said he was Satisfied to take the Oath but did not know whether he was worth the £1000