90

Sir (90) Philadelphia Sept. 25th 1779

90 I have taken this opportunity it being the first I have had, to inform you that we are [illegible] here and Obliged to call, by reason of some prisoners Mr Sadler brought from Baltimore and being out of Provision by reason of Contrary winds, we joind Mr Sadler at Christeen who informs me that A part of his men Mutenyed the Evening before I join'd him, fed on by A substitute for one of his married men, but Mr Sadler stopped them by secretly informing the Leader we still have Eighteen of them from Baltimore prisoners their pretinsions were they were indicted for the State and would not drop the Line except they were forc'd Mr Sadler Immediately made them Prisoners at Elks, the men from Annapo seem to go reluctantly tho say but little we move from here the next Tide, here is no particular news, so conclude your

Excellency's most
obedt Hmle Servt
Dan Gale

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.