42 Dear Sir, Farley. 3 Sept. 1794.

Your Excellency's letter of the 1 Inst: came to hand this morning. Since Friday last I have had several violent paroxisms of the Intermittent which have much shaken my health. Under my present situation it will be impossible for me to expedite the transportation of the detachment from my Brigade to Baltimore in the manner I could wish but I beg leave to assure you that every exertion possible shall be made. I shall immediately appoint the officers from my Brigade agreeably to your order of the 27 Ulto – I had intended to defer this business for a day or two to give time for applications, but the ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND. emergency will not admit of longer delay.

dated 23d Augt

I send orders to the Lt Colonels of my Brigade requiring them to assemble and make return to me at or before (this day) the 3d Sept. of the number and names of such of the 41 persons enrolled, and the General order of the 14th Augt, as are not having hitherto enrolled in Cavalry or Artillery, might be disposed to serve in either against the Insurgents in the W. Parts of Pennsylvania. In this light I understood your Excellency's orders and acted accordingly. The only return I have hitherto received is for Col. Chambers [illegible] which [illegible] that [illegible] who [illegible] of these enrolled for his regiment, declined
