Seorge Washington,

OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

To all to whom these Presents shall come-Greeting:

WHEREAS a treaty of peace and friendship between the United States of America and the tribes of Indians called the Wyandots, Delawares, Shawanoes, Ottawas, Chipewas, Putawatimes, Miamis, Eel-river, Weeás Kickapoos, Piankashaws, and Kaskaskias, was made and concluded on the third day of August, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-sive, by Anthony Wayne, major-general, commanding the army of the United States, duly authorized thereto, on the one part, and the sachems and war chiefs of the before mentioned nations and tribes of Indians, whose names are thereunto signed, on the other part; which treaty is in the form and words following, viz.

"A TREATY of PEACE, between the United States of America and the tribes of Indians called the Wyandots, Delawares, Shawanoes, Ottawas, Chipewas, Putawatimes, Miamis, Eel-river, Weeas Kickapoos, Pianka-shaws and Kaskaskias.

To put an end to a destructive war, to settle all controversies and to restore harmony and a friendly intercourse between the said United States and Indian tribes; Anthony Wayne, major-general, commanding the army of the United States, and sole commissioner for the good purposes above mentioned, and the said tribes of Indians, by their sachems, chiefs, and warriors, met together at Greeneville, the head quarters of the said army, have agreed on the following articles, which, when ratified by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate of the United States, shall be binding on them and the said Indian tribes.

ARTICLE ist. Henceforth all hostilities shall cease; peace is hereby established, and shall be perpetual; and a friendly intercourse shall take place, between the said United States and Indian tribes.

ARTICLE 2d. All prisoners shall on both sides be restored. The Indians prisoners to the United States shall be immediately set at liberty. The people of the United States still remaining prisoners among the Indians, shall be delivered up in ninety days from the date hereof, to the general or commanding officer at Greeneville, Fort Wayne, or Fort Desiance; and ten chiefs of the said tribes shall remain at Greeneville as hostages, untill the delivery of the prisoners shall be effected.

ARTICLE 3d. The general boundary line between the lands of the United States, and the lands of the faid Indian tribes, shall begin at the mouth of Cayahoga river, and run thence up the same to the portage between that and the Tuscarawas branch of the Muskingum; thence down that branch to the crossing place above Fort Lawrence; thence westerly to a fork of that branch of the great Miami river running into the Ohio, at or near which fork stood Loromie's store, and where commences the portage between the Miami of the Ohio, and St. Mary's river, which is a branch of the Miami, which runs into
