Registry, of our prerogative Court at or before the Eight day of May next ensuing, and the same goods chattels and credits and all other the goods chattels and credits of the said deceased, at the time of his death which at any time after shall come to the hands or possession of the said Robert Morgan or into the hands and possession of any person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law, viz: shall pay the debts of the said deceased so far forth as the said goods chattels and credits will extend, and the Law will charge, as also all such reasonable charges and fees as have arisen or shall arise or become due to any of the Lord proprietary his Officers, from the said Robert Morgan on account of the said deceased or his Estate, and further do make or cause to be made a true and just account of his said administration at or before the Eight day of May next; and all the rest and residue of the said goods chattels and credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account the same being first examined and adjusted by the Judge or Judges for the time being of the said Court do distribute or dispose of according to, and the true intent and meaning of the last Will and Testament of the said deceased, and lastly do all, and every time and time hereafter clearly discharge and save harmless his said Lordship his Judges and all other his Officers and Ministers from all person having or pretending to have any right title or Interest to the said Goods and Chattels, then this obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force & virtue." which being read and heard, the said Robert Morgan, says, that the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife their action thereupon against him to have or maintain ought not, because he saith, that he the said Robert Morgan from the time of making the said writing obligatory hitherto hath well and truly observed, performed, fulfilled and kept all and singular the matters and things in the Condition of the said writing obligatory mentioned and contained, which he according to the Condition thereof, ought to have observed, performed, fulfilled and kept, to wit, at Harford County aforesaid, and this he the said Robert Morgan is ready to verify; wherefore he prays Judgment if the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife ought to have or maintain their action aforesaid against him the said Robert Morgan and so forth. And thereupon the said Robert Morgan by his said Attorney prays that the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife may reply to the answer of the said Robert Morgan in the plea aforesaid; Whereupon it is ruled by the Court here, that the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife reply to the answer of the said Robert Morgan in the plea aforesaid, and if they do not reply to the said answer of the said Robert Morgan judgment will be rendered against them by default; and the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife by their said Attorney, pray leave of the Court here to imparle until the second Tuesday of May next; to reply to the answer of the said Robert Morgan in the plea aforesaid, and they have it; the same day is given to the said Robert Morgan then and there, and so forth,

At which said second Tuesday of May, being the twelfth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, until which day the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife had leave to imparle, and then to reply to the answer of the said Robert Morgan in the plea aforesaid, came again into the General Court here, as well the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife by their Attorney aforesaid, as the said Robert Morgan by his Attorney aforesaid; And the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife by their said Attorney say that the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife by any thing in the plea of the said Robert Morgan above pleaded to be precluded from having and maintaining their action aforesaid ought not because protesting that the said Robert Morgan in the Condition of the said writing obligatory mentioned did not make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the goods chattles and credits of the said deceased which came to the hands possession or knowledge of him the said Robert Morgan or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him and the same so made hath not exhibited or caused to be exhibited into the Registry of our prerogative Court at or before the Eighth day of May next ensuing the date of the writing obligatory aforesaid, and the same goods chattles and credits and all other the goods chattles and credits of the said deceased at the time of his death which at any time after came to the hands or possession of the said Robert Morgan or into the hands or possession of any person or persons for him did not well and truly administer according to Law, viz, did not pay the debts of the said deceased so far forth as the said goods chattles and credits did extend and the Law did charge as also all such reasonable charges and fees as did arise or become due to any of the Lord proprietary his Officers from the said Robert Morgan on account of the said deceased or his Estate and further did not make or cause to be made a true and just account of his said administration at or before the eighth day of May next ensuing the date of the writing obligatory aforesaid and all the rest and residue of the said goods chattles and credits which were found upon the said administrators account the same being first examined and adjusted by the Judge or Judges for the time being of the said Court did not distribute or dispose of according to the true intent and meaning of the last Will and Testament of the said deceased and did not lastly at or every time and time thereafter clearly discharge and save harmless his said Lordships Judges and all other his aforementioned ministers from all persons having or pretending to have any right title or Interest to the said goods and chattles according to the force form and effect of the Condition of the writing obligatory aforesaid, to wit; at Harford County aforesaid as the said Robert Morgan by his said plea hath alledged for replication to the said plea the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife say that the said Edward Morgan deceased by his said last Will and Testament amongst other things did give and bequeath unto his daughter Elizabeth Morgan now the Wife of the said Dixon Slade three hundred pounds Pennsylvania money to be put out to Interest until she came of Age but in case she should die before she came