of age then to be divided equally amongst his former Children and the Mother of said Child share and share alike, and did also by his said Will give and bequeath unto his daughter Susanna Morgan three hundred pounds Pennsylvania Money to be put out to Interest till she come of age but in case she should die before she comes of age then to be equally divided amongst his former Children and the Mother of said Child share and share alike, And the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife in fact say that the said Elizabeth did arrive of age before the impetration of the Original Writ in this cause to wit on the twenty first day of November seventeen hundred and ninety four to wit at Harford County aforesaid and that the said Susanna Morgan daughter of the said Edward Morgan deceased and legatee aforesaid departed this life on the before the said Legacy devised to her was paid or any part thereof Intestate and without Issue whereby one sixth part of the said Legacy of three hundred pounds and Interest thereon amounting to fifty pounds Pennsylvania Money and Interest thereon so as aforesaid devised to her the said Susanna became by the Will aforesaid due and payable to the said Elizabeth the wife of the said Dixon Slade, and the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife do aver that the aforesaid several sums of Pennsylvania Money were at the time of the devise aforesaid and ever has been and now is of the value of the like sum of Current Money of Maryland, to wit, at Harford County aforesaid of which the said Robert there had notice, and they further say that the said Robert Morgan the Executor aforesaid hath not paid nor in any manner satisfied to the said Elizabeth before her intermarriage with the said Dixon nor to the said Dixon since their intermarriage the aforesaid sum of three hundred pounds Pennsylvania Money or the value thereof, and the Interest due thereon so as aforesaid devised to her by the Will aforesaid nor in any manner paid or satisfied to the said Elizabeth before her intermarriage or to the said Dixon since his intermarriage with the said Elizabeth the further sum of Fifty pounds Pennsylvania Money or the value thereof and Interest thereon her proportion as aforesaid of the said sum of Three hundred pounds Pennsylvania money devised to her on the death of the said Susanna by the Will of the said Edward Morgan deceased or any part of either of the said sums of Money or the value thereof, and so the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife say the said Robert Morgan hath not distributed and disposed of according to Law and the true intent and meaning of the said last Will and Testament of the said deceased the goods and chattles rights and credits of the said Edward Morgan deceased according to the force form and effect of the condition of the said writing obligatory which he ought to have done and this the said Dixon and Elizabeth his Wife are ready to verify and so forth, wherefore the said Dixon and Elizabeth his Wife pray Judgment and the debt aforesaid together with damages for the detention of the said debt to the said Dixon and Elizabeth his Wife to be adjudged and so forth. And thereupon, on motion of the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife by their Attorney aforesaid, it is ruled by the Court here, that the said Robert Morgan rejoin to the Replication of the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife in the plea aforesaid; and if he doth not rejoin to the said Replication of the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his Wife Judgment will be rendered against him in default thereof; And the said Robert Morgan by his said Attorney prays leave of the Court here to imparle until the second Tuesday of October next to rejoin to the replication of the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife in the plea aforesaid, and he hath it, the same day is given to the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife, then and there, and so forth.

At which said second Tuesday of October, being the thirteenth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, until which day the said Robert Morgan had leave to imparle, and then to rejoin to the replication of the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife in the plea aforesaid, come again into the General Court here, as well the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife by their Attorney aforesaid, as the said Robert Morgan by his Attorney aforesaid; And the said Robert Morgan saith that the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife ought not to have or maintain their action aforesaid against him by reason of any thing above by them in replying alledged because he saith that no goods and chattels which were of the said Edward Morgan at the time of his death have come to or been in the hands of him the said Robert Morgan to be administered and that he hath not in his hands to be administered nor had he on the day of the impetration of the original writ in this cause any goods or chattels which were of the said Edward Morgan at the time of his death; and this he the said Robert Morgan is ready to verify wherefore he prays Judgment whether the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife their aforesaid action against him to have or maintain ought and so forth.

And the said Robert Morgan as to the breach in the replication of them the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife above alledged as to the non payment of the said Legacies he saith that the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife their aforesaid action against him to have or maintain by any thing therein alledged ought not; because he saith that after the arrival to age of the said Elizabeth to wit, on the twenty first day of November in the year seventeen hundred and ninety four, he the said Robert Morgan paid to the said Elizabeth whilst she was Sole and before her intermarriage with the said Dixon the said sum of Three hundred pounds Pennsylvania money in form aforesaid devised to her by the Will of the said Edward Morgan and the Interest thereon due, as also the said sum of Fifty pounds Pennsylvania money the proportion of the said Susanna of the said Three hundred pounds Pennsylvania money devised to her as aforesaid on the death of the said Susanna together with the Interest thereon due to wit at Harford County and this he the said Robert Morgan is ready to verify, wherefore he prays Judgment whether the said Dixon Slade and Elizabeth his wife to have or maintain
