of Carolina.

Interrogatory 1st. Do you or do you not know Thomas Bicknell the Plaintiff.

2nd. Do you or do you not know whether said Plaintiff ever purchased a negroe of a certain Richard Robinson.

3d. Did or did not said Plaintiff pay them whole of said purchase money, if not what proportion did said Plaintiff pay.

4th. Did or did not said Plaintiff leave a balance of said purchase money unpaid at the time he made payment of said purchase money.

5th. Did you or did you not, meet much difficulty in getting said balance.

6th. Was the balance of said purchase money paid to you by the Plaintiff or by any other person, if yea, in what manner was it paid.

7th. Did or did not the Plaintiff request you to borrow said ballance for him and did you not apply to a certain James Anderson for said ballance in behalf of Thomas Bicknell the Plaintiff, if yea, what reply did said Anderson make you.

8th. Did you or did you not know, whether said Thomas Bicknell the plaintiff, ever applied personally to said James Anderson for the loan of said money, if yea, what was the result of said application;

9th. Did or did not said James Anderson after several applications from you, agree to pay said ballance to you, if you could obtain an obligation, with good security for said money.

10th. Did you or did you not in consequence thereof, deliver to said James Anderson said Thomas Bicknells note with William Hall the 3rd as security thereto.

11th. Was the said negro sold as aforesaid, included in a mortgage given by you to a certain Brice Thomas Beale Worthington If yea, was the said negro released by the mortgage.

12th. Did you or did you not ever borrow or receive any other or further sum or sums of money from said Thomas Bicknell the Plaintiff more than the purchase money for said negro, if yea did you ever make payment thereof.

13th. Did you or did you not give Thomas Bicknell the Plaintiff a power to prosecute a suit commenced in the High Court of Chancery in the State of Maryland John Worthington and others against Richard Robinson & others.

14th. Did you or did you not give an assignment to said Thomas Bicknell the Plaintiff for any sum of money which he might obtain from John Worthington & others as a compensation for the money he lost in the purchase of said negro, or for moneys advanced to you by said Plaintiff in this case.

15th. Did you or did you not make any verbal or written promise or agreement with said Thomas Bicknell the Plaintiff to obtain or receive any money he could receive from said John Worthington & others now defendants as a compensation or in lieu of any money said Bicknell lost on the payment of the money for the purchase of the negro or otherwise.

16th. Do you or do you not know or have you ever heard whether any administration was made on the Estate of Mathew Robinson father of Richard Robinson after the sale of the said negroe by Richard Robinson to Thomas Bicknell the Plaintiff, if yea, by whom, and whether you ever heard to or do you know that that said negroe was taken out of the possession of said Thomas Bicknell by the Administrators. 17th. Did you or did you not mortgage your property which you had in the State of Maryland both real & personal to said Brice Thomas Beale Worthington. 18th. Did you or did you not sell your right of Redemption to said Lands to a certain Minian Riggs.

19th Do you or do you not know, or have you ever heard whether said Minian Riggs did not sell his right of redemption to said Lands to a certain Andrew Anderson.

20th. Did you or did you not ever understand and from whom, or do you know or do you not know whether said Thomas Bicknell ever was in possession of said Lands mortgaged as aforesaid, if yea under whom did said Bicknell obtain the right of redemption to said Lands, and by whom did you get your knowledge thereof. 21st. Do you or do you not know, or have you ever heard, whether the suit depending between Thomas Bicknell the Plaintiff and John Worthington & others defendants, is not on account of moneys arising from the settlement made between said Richard Robinson & Brice Thomas Beale Worthington on the back of the mortgage and whether you ever heard or do you know that Richard Robinson had agreed that Thomas Bicknell should apply to his own use any moneys that might be recovered by virtue or on account of any moneys arising from the settlement on the back of the mortgage made by said Richard Robinson and Brice Thomas Beale Worthington as aforesaid if yea for what reason or for what cause did Richard Robinson agree that Thomas Bicknell, should apply said money to his own use. 22nd. Do you or do you not know or have you understood whether Richard Robinson feels himself interested or in any manner concerned in Thomas Bicknells interfering in the settlement made on the back of the mortgage between Richard Robinson and Brice Thomas Beale Worthington, if nay for what reason and for what purpose did you