June Term 1810.

Benedict Edward Hall Executor and administrator as aforesaid, therefore in this it was manifestly erred; and they the said Samuel Gover and Hannah his wife prayed that the Decree aforesaid for this and other errors in the Record and proceedings aforesaid being, might be revoked, annulled and held for naught, and that they the said Samuel Gover and Hannah his wife to all which they had by occasion of the Decree aforesaid lost, might be restored, &c. And the said Benedict Edward Hall Executor and administrator as aforesaid by his attorney aforesaid, said that neither in the Record and proceedings aforesaid, nor in rendering the Decree aforesaid it was in any wise erred; and therefore prayed that the said Decree might in all things be affirmed &c: and thereupon the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid, prayed that the said Court of appeals would proceed as well to the examination of the Record and proceedings aforesaid as of the matters aforesaid above for errors assigned: But because the said Court of appeals were not advised to give their Decree of and upon the premises, day therefore was given to the parties aforesaid before the said Court of appeals until the second Tuesday of June then next to hear their Decree of and upon the premises, because the said Court of appeals were thereof not advised, &c.

At which said second Tuesday of June being the Eleventh day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, came again into the said Court of appeals, as well the said Samuel Gover and Hannah his wife by Arthur Shaaff, Thomas Buchanan and William Pinkney their attornies, as the said Benedict Edward Hall Executor and administrator as aforesaid by Luther Martin, Philip Barton Key and John Johnson his attornies: But because the said Court of appeals were not then advised to give their Decree of and upon the premises, a day therefore was further given to the said parties before the said Court, until the second monday of november then next to hear their Judgment of and upon the said premises, because the said Court were thereof not then advised &c

At

June Term 1810.

At which said second Monday of november being the Eleventh day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, came again into the said Court of appeals the parties aforesaid by their last attornies aforesaid: But because the said Court of appeals were not then advised to give their Decree of and upon the premises, a day therefore was further given to the said parties before the said Court until the second Tuesday of June then next to hear their Decree of and upon the said premises because the said Court were thereof not then advised &c.

And at this day, to wit, the third monday in June being the sixteenth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six, until which day the appeal, Record and proceedings aforesaid which had remained without day by the operation and effect of an act of assembly of this State passed at a Session of assembly begun and held at the city of annapolis on monday the fourth of november in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, entitled, "an act to confirm an act, entitled, an act to provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this State, and to alter, change and abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of Government as relate to the General Court and Court of appeals," having been in virtue of an act passed at the same Session of assembly, entitled, "an act to provide for the organization and regulation of the Courts of common law in this State and for the administration of justice therein", revived and continued until the next Court of appeals to be holden for the Western Shore at the city of Annapolis, comes into the Court of appeals here as well the said Samuel Gover and Hannah his wife by Arthur Shaaff, Thomas Buchanan and Robert Goodloe Harper their attornies, as the said Benedict Edward Hall Executor and administrator as aforesaid by Luther Martin, Philip Barton Key and John Johnson his attornies: But because the Court now here are not advised to give their Decree of and upon the premises, a day therefore is further given to the parties aforesaid with the consent of the said parties by their attornies aforesaid, before the Court here until the third monday in December next to hear their Decree of and upon the said premises, because the Court