Thomas Marshall and John Forbes, Trustees of Elizabeth Bond for the use of Daniel of St. Thos Jenifer

vs

John T. Wood

Be it remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the fourth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, Thomas Marshall and John Forbes, Trustees of Elizabeth Bond by Henry Greenfield Sotheron Key their attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon an affirmance of a certain Judgment, the writ of the State of Maryland of fieri facias, directed to the Sheriff of Prince George's County in the words and of the tenor following, to wit: Maryland, &c. The State of Maryland to the Sheriff of Prince George's County, Greeting: Whereas at a County Court, begun and held at Upper Marlborough Town in and for Prince George's County on the first Monday in April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eleven, a certain Thomas Marshall and John Forbes, trustees of Elizabeth Bond by the Judgment of the said Court, recovered against a certain John T. Wood, late of Prince George's County, planter, as well the sum of three thousand pounds current money, a certain Debt, as the sum of six dollars and eighty eight cents and one third of a cent for their damages which they had sustained, as well by reason of the detention of that debt, as for their costs and charges by them about their suit in that behalf laid out and expended, where of the said John T. Wood is convict, as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court, brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore, at the City of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein, manifestly appears: And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of appeals, at the City of Annapolis aforesaid, on the first Monday in December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, that the said Judgment, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said Thomas Marshall and John Forbes might have execution against the said John T. Wood for as well the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto them in the said County Court, as also for the sum of Ten dollars and sixty cents for their damages, costs and charges by them sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the Judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting a certain writ of the said State by the said John T. Wood before the said Court of Appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, where of the said John T. Wood is convict, as of record it likewise appeareth. Therefore you are hereby commanded, that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said John T. Wood, being in your bailiwick, you cause to be made the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid; and have you those sums before the said Court of Appeals, to be held at the City of Annapolis on the last Monday in may next, to render unto the said Thomas Marshall and John Forbes the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness the honourable Jeremiah Townley Chase, Esquire, chief judge of the Court of Appeals, the seventh day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

Issued the 4th day of February 1813 (Hg Key). (Sh. Harris, Junr Clk)

Which said writ of fieri facias was thereon endorsed as follows, to wit, Debt £3000 current mo Costs £6.88⅓. Court of appeals Costs £10 60 add£ £0.50. To be released on payment of £1218.9.0½ current money with Interest thereon from the 30th of November 1807 till paid and the above costs.

And now at this day, to wit, the last Monday in May being the thirty first day of the said Month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and the return day of the foregoing writ, come into the Court of Appeals here the said Thomas Marshall and John Forbes by their attorney aforesaid, and the Sheriff of Prince George's County aforesaid, to whom the said writ was in form aforesaid directed, to wit, George Semmes, Gentleman, makes return thereof to
