at the time of his death seized in fee of a large and valuable estate real and personal, some time in or about the Year seventeen hundred and seventy Two in due form of Law made and executed his last will and Testament in writing, by which amongst other things he bequeathed to his daughter Mary Due fifteen hundred pounds Sterling, to his daughter Eleanor Dorsey Two thousand pounds Sterling, to his Grand daughter Eleanor Dorsey Two thousand pounds Sterling, to his Grand daughter Eleanor Goodwin Dorsey One Thousand pounds Sterling, as will fully appear by a Copy of said will here produced marked No 1. and which your Orator prays may be deemed and taken as part of this bill

Your Orator further represents that the said Caleb Dorsey after having made the above pecuniary legacies, and certain specific legacies did give and bequeath "all the remainder of his personal Estate after paying his just debts and legacies unto his two Sons Samuel and Edward Dorsey equally between them" — and by the will aforesaid did devise unto his son Samuel Dorsey aforesaid and the heirs of his body, his Land called Chews Resolution manor resurveyed, also the Land called the Gore, Chews Vineyard, one undivided moiety of his Land in Baltimore County, called Taylors Forest, and all the remaining unsold of the mill Frog Timber Ridge, Calebs Delight enlarged, all his lots at Elk Ridge Landing and all his part of the furnace and works at Curtis's Creek, together with the

(Land,

Land purchased and taken up for the use of the said Furnace and works and the said Caleb by the will aforesaid, did devise to his son Edward and the heirs of his body all his Land called Calebs pasture, the Valley of Owings Littlewoth, Calebs and Edwards Friendship and one undevided moiety of his Land in Baltimore County called Taylors Forest and all his part of the Elk Ridge furnace, That to secure the payment of the debts due and the legacies aforesaid, and to prevent the whole of the personal Estate from being exhausted, which would have prevented certain Iron works described in the will by the Elk Ridge furnace and the forge called Dorseys Forge in which the Testator was interested from being carried on, as a fund in and of the personal, and to prevent so much as should be necessary to carry on the works aforesaid from being sold, the said Testator devised that the Land called Dorseys Delight enlarged, Timber Ridge, and his part of the Land called Mill Frog, and also all his part of the Furnace and work at Curtis's Creek together with all the other Lands taken up and purchased for the use of the same be sold and the monies arising from the sale to be applied in paying off and satisfying the said legacies, all which will fully and particularly appear by the will before exhibited as part of this compl

Your Orator further represents that the said Caleb Dorsey after making the will aforesaid and before the making the Codicil

to