to the same as hereafter stated, contracted and agreed with a certain Alexander Lawson of Baltimore for one undevided third part of certain Iron works the Lands, negroes Stock and so forth necessary and proper to carry on the same and which had been used for said purpose that the said Caleb Dorsey agreed to give for the same the Sum of

and gave his bond dated the day of in the year seventeen hundred and for the purchase money, and received on said day a bond for the conveyance of the same from the said Alexander Lawson - that under said Contract and in part payment thereof the said Dorsey paid to the said Lawson the Sum of leaving due at the time of the said Dorseys death the Sum of Three thousand pounds sterling with Interest from the 20th May 1772. Your Orator further represents that the said Dorsey thus having purchased or contracted for the premises aforesaid, and thereby contracted a considerable debt, on the Twenty first of May seventeen hundred and Seventy Two by his Codicil annexed to the said Will did devise and bequeath as follows.

I give unto my two sons Samuel and Edward Dorsey aforesaid and to their heirs forever to be equally divided between them to hold as Tenants in common all and singular the Furnaces and Iron Works tracts, pieces and parts of Land, Negroes

while,

December Term 1813.

while servants, Cattle, Waggons, Carts and Stock of what nature and kind soever and all and singular the parts shares and proportions of the furnaces and Iron works, tracts pieces and parcels of Land of what nature and kind soever which I have lately purchased from and of a certain Alexander Lawson of Baltimore Town. and I do further direct that such part of the consideration money as shall be due and owing to the said Alexander Lawson for the aforesaid premises at the time of my decease, shall be paid equally, share and share alike by my said two sons their heirs Executors or administrators - That by the Codicil aforesaid the said Dorsey did bequeath to his Daughter Rebecca Ridgely, Mary Lee, Milcah Dorsey, Eleanor Dorsey, Peggy Hill Dorsey and Priscilla Dorsey the Sum of Six hundred pounds sterling each to be paid to them by his two Sons Samuel and Edward share and share alike, at the expiration of Three years after his decease, and that his said Sons should pay to the Legatees legal Interest for the said last mentioned Sums respectively devised, until such time or times as the said several Sums of money are paid and that the Testator to secure the payment of said Codicil legacies did burthen and charge all the real Estate devised as aforesaid under the Will or Codicil, and in case of neglect or refusal to pay the same then the said Testator did direct and appoint the Executors to sell and dispose of such part of the real Estate as shall be sufficient to discharge the said

legacies