

The position I occupy is essentially judicial, not in character of a prosecutor to press proof beyond the extent to which it has properly been - I represent the Court to see its laws vindicated to the eyes of all persons present - shall conduct with fair play to both

I shall begin myself with giving with simple statements of proof to be offered - I shall attempt no deductions from it - nor shall I enlarge upon any topics unnecessarily - I shall state an outline of the facts

The charge is that witness was perjured
1. that Dr P. was wounded; & 2^d that he was wounded by Dr W the Deft
& H

Gov^t will offer ~~some~~ evidence to show that Dr P. was alive & well on Friday 23^o & that Judicial College to a witness before the 24th - He did not when he died - His reputation of Dr P. will be shown in being at home on Monday.

He had a daughter an accused daughter - to whom he was much attached
