

Dr W. and among to flatter the University, which he had mentioned to Dr P. - Dr P. learned this, & this greatly annoyed Dr P. & he constantly pointed out to Dr W. that he followed Dr W. as a fraudulent & dishonest man - & did work to the effect to Dr W. himself.
- In all further affairs Dr W. had had off Dr P. upon suggestion that he would pay when he got pay from students for his lectures - by sale of tickets.
States his relation to the College

The Professor of the College made the Pillar their collector

The Lecturers' Convention on the 7th Nov. On the 9th of Nov. Dr P. called on Dr W. & urged on the part of his debt. Dr W. requested him to wait for further period - that he had not with the money for his tickets - and he had in fact had then raised a considerable sum of the money for sale of those tickets

Dr P. still begged Dr W. & on 12th called on Pillar to see how they stood, & again on the 14th
- & then he spoke of, or threatened a strike among
- & then he sent message by Pillar to Dr W.
that he was dishonest man

On 16th Dr P. called again on Dr W. &
