Upon enquiry that Wednesday would be Tuesday
date — that last day the 20th Dr W wrote to Dr P. a note

On Monday the 22d Dr P. rode out to Cambridge to see Dr W.

Dr W. the debtor evading payment by the auditor pursuing him

On Monday 23d Dr P. called at Dr P. should appointment for Dr Dr P. & went him.

Dr W. went to Medical College about 9 o'c & there he met Mr Potter, who in consequence of what Dr P had threatened about Dr W's Sample Dr W & Dr P. were in. He told Dr W of what Dr P. had threatened & then Dr W replied that he would have no further trouble with Dr P. for I have settled with him

Potter paid Dr W. then 90. being the proceeds of his tickets — had it in a check.

Cor Shaw then that was a dollar & above the sold four dollars of tickets was paid to Dr P. — that his statements in the Lobby are false.
