

I continued my search. We continued our search. Officer Frankston was with me some of the time, and the people in the neighborhood were excited in the search, then being excitement then. We had to search - so that I did not know the Police office till 11 or 12 o'clock that night. The Police were at work at 2 o'clock - two of them called at my house.

During the Saturday we continued our search by asking every one we met. I should think as many as 15 in our neighborhood besides the police were searching - were with me during the afternoon. In the evening of January many of the houses in that neighborhood were searched. More with them when 5 or 6 houses were searched. Search had all been midnight.

Advertisements were given toward off. The first had been published Saturday afternoon - I print in what paper. I think the evening journal was one. I saw it in one of the papers, can't tell what.

Sunday we searched about the city all the forenoon. In the course of
