

The morning we got hold of a story that he was seen at East Cambridge; & at the afternoon I went over there with some of the Police. The officers - some of them - started at 4th - I think after they had been gone $\frac{1}{4}$ or $\frac{3}{4}$ of an hour for many persons were looking about the vacant jail land on Sunday & the same day many of Dr. P. Loomis' men searched, some of his vacant ones.

On Monday I went over again to East Cambridge. There this time 11 o'clock; I then came back & went to Medical College; should think that was from 10 to 11 o'clock. The flockmaster the police officer was with me. We went all over the building - into all the lecture rooms - dissecting room & into the attic - the attic we got into the cellar, but looked into the large dissecting vault.
 I think that I saw the skeleton & Dr. Loomis' apparatus.
 I think it was taken & that I got the key & unlocked it. We went into Dr. W. Loomis' room.
 We knocked at his lecture room door - I think it was from $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ past 11 when we got to Dr. W. room. - We found Dr. W. room locked. I was then I believe. He was there when we knocked or when we were for admission - the way then when he got admission - The
