

before any thing was said of the party.
I think by now by the time of the window when I was looking at for a person

I have never means sitting the person.

The door of the small room above was open. Clapp just put his head in - I did not go in. The room is small

Dr H. let us into the lecture room.
I was right side of us when we went in.
I don't rec that L. started to go round any other way. He knocked twice I think 2 days. I don't rec whether I did or not hear his foot steps.
- I don't rec any one in the lecture room - stand there only 2 or 3 mins, then we went into the back room - the person stand right in front of him when he went to back room - that was the one in which I moved the ashes with me -

Dr Moody, Harkness & L. were with me. & Dr Lewis with him with us when of the time. I don't rec if
