

meal times. He was absent only when when I was there, & then he was in before dinner was through.

* Dr P kept no other man servant but he
 he was very anxious to keep her down —

Ellen called that day for the Dr. I did not tell anybody that he had gone away for the day.

Robert F. Shaw. I was brother in law of Dr P.
 He would have been 60 yrs old in Feb. Dr P. was intimate acquaintance of Dr F. I don't know how long he has known Dr F.

The first of my hearing knowledge that Dr P had come morning to by my telling of tale of his intentions to me.

On Friday 27th Dr P. called on me between 9 & 10 & we walked together down to State Street. Nothing unusual. He was in good health & spirits — We parted in State St.
 That was the last time I saw him.

On Saturday morning, Mrs P. had for me found her in great distress. In answer of what she said I went to Dr Francis Perkins and then to Edmund Flaherty's office — Dr
