

obtained - on which the success of a medical School so much depends - I had every reason to anticipate a large class - & on that founded my promise to pay D & C. But the increase was not this year what I had expected.

However I should have paid D & C. had not Dr D. come to me more than once during the autumn & told me I must be ready to pay him before any one else &c.

Dr Lewis - I have absolutely denied to him any knowledge of Dr D. after he left me - & have also said that I did not believe the remains found were those of Dr D.

L - d
wants

The ar
have to

The lang
made
the cons
instru-
ted - to
requir-
blasting
led to a new
discover
expense
lecting
changes
built
College,
cost. I'