

For Judge Brewster

Key - The missing key may have been thrown down the chimney of Littlefield's premises, in the shed - would it not be well to employ some man to look below for it - there is no vault - at low tide it might be found & if so could only have been put there by him or his wife.

Tuesday - The police would have noticed a fire in the furnace when they searched if I had made one - I did accompany them & Dr. Cairnworth.

Parcel of Citric Acid. Purchased at Thayer's under Berere house for Mrs W. I do not recollect the day, but probably Monday. I waited near half an hour for the omnibus - talked with Thayer - a beggar woman came in who was in the family way & he directed her to go to the lying in hospital - I got in omnibus as it came along & home to dinner.
