For Mr Schien

Mr. Latham. Some years ago, on leaving for the U.S., I left with Mr. L. some notes given by medical students to correct. He did not collect all - he offered after my return to buy some of them at a considerable discount - I let him have them - endorsed on them to be given to him. Some time after, I was accosted in State St by a young man, whom I did not know, complaining that I had caused him to be sued & that he must go to jail - I expressed astonishment as I had never done so. It then appeared that Mr. L. had done it. On seeing Mr. L. I blamed him for this & asked him how he dared sue the person in my name - He was very impudent.

I had occasion to pay a bill to Mr. L. as a collector & gave him, either as part or whole, an order for a quarter rent on a ten cent - The next quarter when I called for the rent I was surprised at being informed that the rent of that quarter also had been taken up by Mr. L. - for which he had no authority. The next time I met him I told him that he had acted without authority & he was very impudent.

Not long after he came on me with a bill
