

I asked him how he dared to come to my house after what he had done & directed him to leave it, as I should have nothing more to do with him. It was a bill of apportionment of the Academy of Arts & Sciences - I called on the Treas^r & paid him telling him at the time why I did not pay it to Mr. L.

I subscribed to the Living Age at Carter's for two copies - one for my daughter in Lowell & one for the Cambridge Book Club. Paid I think in advance. After 2 or 3 years Latham ^{left} ~~came~~ ~~with~~ bills for the work - I found that one had been paid - called on Mr. Carter - he found his young man had probably made a mistake - would see about it. I told Carter to send Latham to me again. But after Mr.
L. came to the Med. College with the bill for the C. B. Club which I paid there. Carter sent his statement of the paym^{ts} of 3 or 4 years.
I wrote him what the error was. Latham came to the house with another years bill of the A. S. I told him he need not come to me with any bills as I should pay him none, nor have any thing to do with him & told him never to come to my house again. Whenever he met me he was insolent & I took no notice of him which greatly incensed him. I paid Carter & Book can testify to his impudence to him.
