Hon Judge Purcell

Dear Sir

As long as there appeared to be any prospect of making out the required sum from other sources, I have been unwilling to mention one from motives of delicacy, not wishing to have the person's name brought forward, nor to have it published to the world that I had been under the necessity of applying to this source. But now as the other sources are found insufficient I must waive all personal feeling & mention to you the facts.

Mrs St. has been in the habit of sending to Fayal & St. Michael for various ladies articles of dress, which are made there much cheaper than here, also for embroidery & a peculiarly beautiful
