

Dr. must trust this testimony of Littlefield in some way - by its intrinsic character -

& so if he swears his statement - & then in the otherwise unimportant circumstances about the time when Dr. gave him the order for the turkey - discover notice -

In case of this kind, scarcely any allowance, or latitude is to be conceded to witness so situated.

- But Littlefield may be considered as corroborated as to the Priny by the fact that the key of it was found in the pocket of Dr. after his arrest.

5 The discovery of blood - on the Parlatours on the Slippers on the vein of paper bond on the floor on the handle of the saw & perhaps on the Towels found in trunk of the Priny.

6 The instruments by which the homicide was committed - as for instance, the knife found in the tea chest - supposed to be identified by Sawai

And this may
