

Left many for explanations for much of the testimony - as the situation of the parties who testify - as the peculiarities of the facts relative to the disappearance of Dr P. - & his own position to him at the time which it was supposed to be the last moment at which Dr P. could be traced.

What took place at the Goal - was in a moment of extreme surprise - of intense anxiety - & when he knew that he had been decided - whether from good or bad motives, of the officers of the Law.

The scene at the Hospital may be also explained in same way, with the
