

Here under L. testimony relates to his finding the disparting room entry door open from the outside during Friday night - the 23rd - also his hearing some person in the Laboratory Wednesday at 6.06 a.m. the testimony of the Police when they were taking the remains out of the vault Friday night 30th when they had been over them in the Laboratory -

This in connection with proofs that he was at them several times in Cambridge.

Re: testimony of Sgt. Dempsey.

No evidence that the windows were ever fastened, but proof for Sillitoe that the rooms were accessible through them. - L. actually entered in the case on Wednesday -

2. But equally, perhaps still more important ~~points~~ & certainly the more interesting questions remain.

Is the testimony of S. true? or is it safe to rely on it? Is it sufficient to command belief beyond all reasonable doubt upon the vital issue of life & death? Is the whole statement subject to the qualifications which warrant the most critical examination of the
