

that in all his conversations - he has given the some account - though some in the same words - Substantial truth with the circumstances variety - the best test of truth view all the conversations of Dr W on the subject.

2. The total want of motion - since the Govt have failed or I have attempted to show that Dr W falsely deposed Dr P to the College - or its utter inadequacy ~~of~~ if it could be partially or wholly derived from the circumstances which are

3. The circumstances of the time & place forbid the idea that a murder would have been committed there.

4. The absence of all marks of violence of that great effusion of blood which would have followed - its irreducibility - & absence of any evidence of attempt to remove such marks.

Great Search made for this.

& leaves of course of the blood found by Govt. on pants & slippers - paper & lace
 - perhaps also a knife - & the towels - & leaves also of the supposed tools