

of their usual abridging in their respective parts.

1. Referring under value to the papers the records &
2. Errors admitted, or found
3. Contradictions or incompatibilities.

4. The testimony of Littlefield.

The first consideration should be had for - & in what particular - as by whom witnesses he is directly or indirectly corroborated - & the effect thereof. -

Samuel

was Littlefield.

The first great leading consideration is, that L. was in the College when Dr P. was there on the 23rd - Sam being coming - - concealed himself - he was present, had whole charge of the altar - remained in it - with usual ~~bottom~~ bottom of steps to see the rooms - & he was the first to observe the bones of the body which have been found.