

The great responsibility upon all - Council & jury
- & court.

Extraordinary case

Position of Dr W. - wealth - accumulating sudden disappearance

Thorough search intense anxiety sudden development -

Position of Dr W

The medical college - Literary position such funds w^d not have accrued but been for slight reasons - William's solicitor - daily publications

Then followed the coroner's inquest secret

The strong verdict

Conduct of Dr W. - overwhelmed - silent sufferer

no appeal in his behalf -

Public has even asked to suspend their opinion on jury's - attention to words of honor in his will & children - wrote with confidence in the public intention for impartial trial

Nothing like it in all annals of medical trial.