

L. was in the College when Dr P. went in - He never left the College - had whole charge of it - access to all rooms - (obtained it - body found by him.

His next examination Friday before the Examiners at night - again the gateway before the house of W. being kept first suspicion.

Searches conducted by him - very slight - as he suspected Dr W. (saw if he was guilty he would not in that way)

Wednesday his entrance into the building

Evening as the Wednesday Examination - first writing - first book as the time 1st of the the Englth to Dr W.

When he heard from
in Dr W. room
& the history.
