

Agitation

General Norman Blake

xxx

"There was something

p. 7.

unusual in his demeanour; he seemed broad of for an important interview; he looked

Monday - 10.11.01

unusually pale and studious in his manner.

I had been intimately acquainted with him for many years; and I thought that the interview on his part did not seem so familiar as at previous interview.

James H. Blake

xx

"he held me by the hand all

Monday - afternoon

the while he was talking to me" &c &c

Ephraim Littlefield;

- (after stating the conversation

in which, as he says, Dr W. gave an account of the interview between him & Dr P.)

"on Sunday"
"the Sunday"

"during this conversation with Dr Webster, the

"tremulous manner in which he conversed with "me and his father, and by the averting of his "face while talking with me for the first time

"excited by suspicion against him"

p. 35

"During this search Dr W. appeared somewhat disconcerted"