

under my observation.

I have pursued the tutoring in the case of Professor Webster attentively, & I cannot bring my mind to a conviction of his guilt.

Please pardon the liberty
I have taken in sending you this account which after all may not be deemed by you of any importance.

27 March 1880

Yours Off. Servant
George W. Niles
192 Broadway
Atty. Gen.

The Criminal The Effect

Mr. Editor:—

While the public is strongly excited
the nature and
much discussed
case of the Boston
thirty years ago
out a parallel in
reported, save
of that day, per
interest in a succe
was present du
fully acquainted

About the year
were farmers, a
township of Mil
persons implic
the father, Ben
and Jesse. The
rious men, in v
a daughter, wh
man by the m
steady chaps, all
family, rather
and as a natur
provided by the
off and leave
and there were
pendent. Qua
and the brothe
tentation becom
At length Colv
and his wife h
away: public
neighbors had
as months and
would arise to
what had becom
ed from time to
without leadin
the spring of elapied: since
stances seemer
vague, suspici
earnest; the
his disappear
the last time
with his uncl
that they had
phen struck
knocked him
and run for th
caught him.
their striking
questioned w
said he was so
not. This led
in an old exc
potatoes, was
nised by the
used by him
of a tree whic
field, were fou
clared to be t
toe nail. Th
aroused the
the father, ar
prison. In t
what was the
State. Sever
after him to
found him in
reached his p
him up, and
agitation, ser
persuasion of
Steve, we ha
did not weak
found anythi
to Mancheste
knowledge of last. In the
brought out
viction of th
individuals I
to capital pu
as a means o
the State pr
his entire im
transaction,
denied all
stances were
act, though
about the af