

mind. The ~~harvest~~ ^{order} ~~sake~~ ^{and} are now sent by streams of water have been directed from the natural channels. This done unmercifully has been the immediate cause of the injury complained of. The Defendants do put their defense upon the ground of inevitable necessity.
They say their consent was honest but unjust.
We would not have feared to have put the case before the jury upon the ground of wilful negligence,
This writing was done by Mayn & C.

of oilful rhymer,
This moving was done by Mayn & C Council of Baltimore we have paid the inhabitants of Balt: amount known by the capen to stand, and do not see the Agents personally the cause to a first

do not see the Agents personally In comparing this case to a suit against the Agents of the Corporation: lies the fallacy of the argument on the other side We see the Inhabitants. as chartered act of 1796 ch 68 sec 7

Act of 1/1
Evanus W. D. Manin 2 31

In this charter the ^{Corporation} ~~person~~ is prohibited from doing any thing against the Constitution of the State or of the United States Corporation acting under

The State of the Union
This is a Corporation acting under the power of the State, and distinguished