proper hand of the said Thomas Hillory directed to one Samuell Groome by the name of Samuell Groome Merchant in London for the payment of the said 14li 11s 07d ob at time days after sight of the said bill of Exchange to the said John Abington or his order directed and the assume upon him self to the said John Abington in his life time faithfully promise that if 14li 11s 07d ob were dishonourably pay according to the tenour of the said bills of Exchange that the said Thomas Hillory would without delay pay the same when thereunto required and the said George Lingan in fact saith that on the third day of November Anno 1694 in the sixth yeare of the raigne of William & Mary King & Queene of England &c at the Exchange London & Madam Mariell pawdy of London widow & Madam Mariell with the will annexed Fortune Jonkind Notary & admitted & sworne duly thereto the originall bill of Exchange written unto Mr Samuell demanding payment of the that he would not pay the same being by him the said Notary presented did solemnly protest against the said Thomas Hillory all costs damages & interest the exchange & all rights be sustained for want of further remedy & protest produced Now the said promise & assume fraudulently in lending life time craftily & subtilly Thomas the said James John Abington in his life did all towards John Abington in the committed or by either not paid but the same the damages of the said bringeth his said suit — the Letters of Attorney of Exchange & in stamped more sufficiently appears form and as aforesaid —

Now here at this day to wit the 1695 came the said George Lingan by his attorney aforesaid and the said Thomas Hillory by William who says he is not by the sufficient to plead in barr by the said plaintiffe against the said Thomas his consideration by the Court aforesaid recover against of Sterling pounds pence three farthings & protest according to hundred eighty and three and thirdly in money &

This Saund
ags
This Saunders
Williams —

Maryld fol:
Thomas Hillory right to & in the Gent deceased and of all & singular Folkingbourne
plea of his part

And whereupon the said attorney complaineth that life time made and in the sum of twenty for and the said Ewn his day of three bills of Exchange according to the proper hand of the said dbington by the name of the payment of the sight of the said bill of Exchange directed the said Barnard him self & to the said John promise That if the said John of the said Barnard Worthington the said sum of of Exchange that the said Barnard the same when thereunto fact says that on the the 12 yeare of the raigne England &c before by Royall authority personally appeared the said

All & singular the goods & chattells Barnard Williams late of Calbert County and to answer unto George Lingan and goods & chattells rights & interest of Calbert County Merchant and debt on the case —

George Lingan by Samuell Watkins his and the said Barnard Williams in the said Folkingbourne in his life time and five shillings & a penny due him Williams in his life time to wit the 1693 in consideration whereof did draw the custome of Mr Gault & signed with and directed to the said Folkingbourne Folkingbourne Merchant in London for and at twenty days after the said Folkingbourne or his order in his life time did assume upon bring him in his life time faithfully Folkingbourne should not have effects in his hand & to pay & satisfy him self according to the tenour of the said bill Williams would without delay required & the said George Lingan day of June Anno 1693 & due in the William & Mary King & Queene of Jonkind Notary & Tabellion publique & sworne duly thereto in London & Folkingbourne in his life time having in his hand the originall bill of Exchange with divers of the Copy the fifteenth day of October Anno Dom Folkingbourne

Thomas
in form of matter of the action aforesaid by the said George Lingan wholly paid & satisfied wherefore that the said George Lingan said Thomas Hillory seven shillings & three pence lawfull money of England & his Assembly & also the sum of pounds of tobacco for recto of same
—/