Know all men by these presents that I James Maxwell of Baltimore County planter am held and firmly bound unto James Crooke of the same County planter in the sum of two thousand pounds of tobacco to be paid unto the said James Crooke his executors administrators or assigns for which payment well and truly to be made I bind myself my heirs executors and administrators firmly by these presents sealed with my seal and dated this 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657

The condition of this obligation is such that if the above bounden James Maxwell his executors administrators or assigns do well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the above named James Crooke his executors administrators or assigns the full and just sum of one thousand pounds of tobacco in cask at or upon the last day of December next ensuing the date hereof without fraud or delay then this obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue in the law

Sealed and delivered in the presence of us

James Maxwell [seal]

Thomas Gerrard

James Crooke

Memorandum that on the 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657 James Maxwell of Baltimore County planter came before me Thomas Gerrard Esquire one of the Justices of the Provincial Court and acknowledged this obligation to be his act and deed

Thomas Gerrard

Memorandum that on the 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657 James Crooke of Baltimore County planter came before me Thomas Gerrard Esquire one of the Justices of the Provincial Court and acknowledged this obligation to be his act and deed

Thomas Gerrard

Memorandum that on the 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657 James Crooke of Baltimore County planter came before me Thomas Gerrard Esquire one of the Justices of the Provincial Court and acknowledged this obligation to be his act and deed

Thomas Gerrard

Know all men by these presents that I James Crooke of Baltimore County planter am held and firmly bound unto James Maxwell of Baltimore County planter in the sum of two thousand pounds of tobacco in cask to be paid unto the said James Maxwell his executors administrators or assigns for which payment well and truly to be made I bind myself my heirs executors and administrators firmly by these presents sealed with my seal and dated this 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657

The condition of this obligation is such that if the above bounden James Crooke his executors administrators or assigns do well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the above named James Maxwell his executors administrators or assigns the full and just sum of one thousand pounds of tobacco in cask at or upon the last day of December next ensuing the date hereof without fraud or delay then this obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue in the law

Sealed and delivered in the presence of us

James Crooke [seal]

Thomas Gerrard

James Maxwell

Memorandum that on the 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657 James Crooke of Baltimore County planter came before me Thomas Gerrard Esquire one of the Justices of the Provincial Court and acknowledged this obligation to be his act and deed

Thomas Gerrard

Memorandum that on the 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657 James Maxwell of Baltimore County planter came before me Thomas Gerrard Esquire one of the Justices of the Provincial Court and acknowledged this obligation to be his act and deed

Thomas Gerrard

Memorandum that on the 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657 James Maxwell of Baltimore County planter came before me Thomas Gerrard Esquire one of the Justices of the Provincial Court and acknowledged this obligation to be his act and deed

Thomas Gerrard

Know all men by these presents that I Thomas Greenbury of Baltimore County planter am held and firmly bound unto James Crooke of Baltimore County planter in the sum of one thousand pounds of tobacco in cask to be paid unto the said James Crooke his executors administrators or assigns for which payment well and truly to be made I bind myself my heirs executors and administrators firmly by these presents sealed with my seal and dated this 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657

The condition of this obligation is such that if the above bounden Thomas Greenbury his executors administrators or assigns do well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the above named James Crooke his executors administrators or assigns the full and just sum of five hundred pounds of tobacco in cask at or upon the last day of December next ensuing the date hereof without fraud or delay then this obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue in the law

Sealed and delivered in the presence of us

Thomas Greenbury [seal]

Thomas Gerrard

James Maxwell

Memorandum that on the 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657 Thomas Greenbury of Baltimore County planter came before me Thomas Gerrard Esquire one of the Justices of the Provincial Court and acknowledged this obligation to be his act and deed

Thomas Gerrard

Memorandum that on the 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657 James Maxwell of Baltimore County planter came before me Thomas Gerrard Esquire one of the Justices of the Provincial Court and acknowledged this obligation to be his act and deed

Thomas Gerrard

Memorandum that on the 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657 James Maxwell of Baltimore County planter came before me Thomas Gerrard Esquire one of the Justices of the Provincial Court and acknowledged this obligation to be his act and deed

Thomas Gerrard

Know all men by these presents that I James Maxwell of Baltimore County planter am held and firmly bound unto James Crooke of Baltimore County planter in the sum of one thousand pounds of tobacco in cask to be paid unto the said James Crooke his executors administrators or assigns for which payment well and truly to be made I bind myself my heirs executors and administrators firmly by these presents sealed with my seal and dated this 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657

The condition of this obligation is such that if the above bounden James Maxwell his executors administrators or assigns do well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the above named James Crooke his executors administrators or assigns the full and just sum of five hundred pounds of tobacco in cask at or upon the last day of December next ensuing the date hereof without fraud or delay then this obligation to be void and of none effect or else to remain in full force and virtue in the law

Sealed and delivered in the presence of us

James Maxwell [seal]

Thomas Gerrard

James Crooke

Memorandum that on the 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657 James Maxwell of Baltimore County planter came before me Thomas Gerrard Esquire one of the Justices of the Provincial Court and acknowledged this obligation to be his act and deed

Thomas Gerrard

Memorandum that on the 29th day of September Anno Domini 1657 James Crooke