falled Whetstone Containing three hundred acres also all other the Lands which were late in the Possession and Occupation of Philip Emerson adjoining to the Lands aforesaid with the Appurtenances as his Right and Inheritance and into which the said Thomas Brewster hath no Entry but after Disseizin which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to him the said James Johnson within thirty years and so forth—

And whereupon the said James Johnson saith that he was Seized of the Lands aforesaid with the Appurtenances in his Demesne as of fee and Right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking thereof the profits to the value of and so forth and into which and so forth and thereof he brings Suit and so forth—

And the aforesaid Thomas Brewster in his proper person comes and defends his Right when and so forth and voucheth thereof to warranty George Maxwell and Elizabeth his wife who come in their proper persons here into Court by their Attorneys and freely the Lands aforesaid with the appurtenances to him the said Thomas Brewster warrants and so forth — And whereupon the said James Johnson demands against them the said George Maxwell and Elizabeth his wife Tenants by his warranty the Lands aforesaid with the Appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth — And whereupon he saith that he was Seized of the Lands aforesaid with the appurtenances in his Demesne as of fee and Right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking thereof the profits to the Value and so forth and into which and so forth and thereof he brings Suit and so forth—

And the aforesaid George Maxwell and Elizabeth his wife Tenants by his warranty in their proper persons defend their Right when and so forth & further voucheth thereof to warranty Richard Goldsmith who is present here in Court in his proper person and freely the Lands aforesaid with the appurtenances to them the said George Maxwell and Elizabeth his wife doth warrant and so forth — And whereupon the said James Johnson demands against him the said Richard Goldsmith Tenant by his warranty the Lands aforesaid with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth — And whereupon he saith that he was Seized of the Lands aforesaid with the Appurtenances in his Demesne as of fee and Right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking thereof the profits to the value and so forth and into which and so forth and thereof he brings Suit & so forth—

And the aforesaid Richard Goldsmith Tenant by his warranty defends his Right when and so forth and saith that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt did not disseize the aforesaid James Johnson of the Lands aforesaid with the Appurtenances as the aforesaid James Johnson by his Writ and Declaration aforesaid above supposeth and of this he puts himself upon the Country and so forth—

And the aforesaid James Johnson prays leave thereof to Imparle and hath it and so forth And afterwards the aforesaid James Johnson comes here into Court in this same Term in his proper person and the aforesaid Richard Goldsmith altho solemnly called comes not but in Contempt of the Court hath departed and made default It is therefore Considered that the aforesaid James Johnson recover his Seisin against the aforesaid Thomas Brewster