doth warrant and so forth; And hereupon the aforesaid Baker Johnson demands against him the said William Rawlings Tenant by his warranty the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in form aforesaid &c. And whereupon he saith that he was seized of the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace, in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking the profits thereof to the value of and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit and so forth.

And the aforesaid William Rawlings Tenant by his warranty comes and defends his right when and so forth, and saith that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt did not disseise the aforesaid Baker Johnson of the Lands aforesaid above demanded, with the appurtenances as the aforesaid Baker Johnson by his writ and Declaration aforesaid above doth suppose, and of this he puts himself upon the County and so forth.

And the aforesaid Baker Johnson prays leave thereof to imparle; and he hath it and so forth, and afterwards the aforesaid Baker Johnson comes again here into Court in his same term in his proper person, and the aforesaid William Rawlings at this solemnly called comes not but in Contempt of the Court here hath departed and makes Default.

Therefore it is considered that the aforesaid Baker Johnson recover his seisin against the aforesaid Joseph Chapline of the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances, and that the aforesaid Joseph Chapline have of the Lands of the aforesaid William Rawlings to the value of and so forth and that the aforesaid William Rawlings be in Mercy and so forth.

Whereupon the aforesaid Baker Johnson, prays the writ of the Lord prospice: stary to the Sheriff of Frederick County to be directed to cause to be delivered to him full seisin of the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances and it is granted to him returnable here the second Tuesday of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy two, and so forth.

Baker Johnson
Charles Brandt

Mayland to wit. Command was given to the Sheriff of Charles County, that he should command Charles Brandt of Charles County planter that justly and without delay he should render unto Baker Johnson, all that tract or parcel of plantable Land called Asher, lying and being in Charles County aforesaid, and containing four hundred and fifty acres and also all that tract or parcel of plantable Land called Greenwright lying and being in Charles County aforesaid and containing two hundred acres of Land with the appurtenances which he claimed to be his right and inheritance and into which the said Charles Brandt, had no entry, but after a disseisin which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to the aforesaid aforesaid Baker Johnson within thirty years and so forth; And whereof the said Baker Johnson, complained, that the said Charles Brandt, had disseised him, and unless the same Charles Brandt should do the same, and the said Baker Johnson should make you secure in prosecuting his clamour, then he should summon by good summoners the said Charles Brandt, that he should be and appear before the Justices of his Lordships provincial Court to be holden at the City of Annapolis the Second Tuesday of September then next, and that he then said Sheriff should have then and there that writ &c.

At which said second Tuesday of September being the tenth day of the same month anno Domini seventeen hundred and seventy one, and the day of the return of the aforegoing writ, comes the aforesaid Baker Johnson in his proper person and the Sheriff of Charles County to whom the same writ was made and directed likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed to wit—

Thomas Jennings Attorney General.—

Charles County to wit. Baker Johnson in his proper person demands against Charles Brandt of Charles County planter, all that tract or parcel of plantable Land called Asher lying and being in Charles County aforesaid and containing four hundred and fifty acres, and also all that tract or parcel of plantable land called Greenwright lying and being in Charles County aforesaid and containing two hundred acres of Land with the appurtenances as his right and inheritance and into which the said Charles Brandt hath no entry, but after a disseisin which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to him the said Baker Johnson within thirty years and so forth. And whereupon the said Baker saith he was seised of the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking the profits thereof to the value of and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit and so forth.

And the aforesaid Charles Brandt in his proper person, comes and defends his right when and so forth, and voucheth thereof to warranty William Rawlings who is present here in Court in his proper person and freely the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances to him the said Charles Brandt doth warrant and so forth; And hereupon the said Baker Johnson demands against the said William Rawlings Tenant by his warranty the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth. And hereupon he saith that he was seised of the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of the Lord the King that now is taking the profits thereof to the value of and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit and so forth
