And the aforesaid William Rawlings Tenant by his warranty comes and defends his right when and so forth, and saith that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt did not disseise the aforesaid Baker Johnson of the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances as the said Baker Johnson by his writ and Declaration aforesaid above doth suppose, and of this he puts himself upon the Country and so forth

And the aforesaid Baker Johnson prays leave thereof to imparle and he hath it and so forth, and afterwards the aforesaid Baker Johnson comes again here into Court in this same Term in his proper person, and the aforesaid William Rawlings although solomnly called comes not, but in Contempt of the Court hath departed and makes Default

Therefore it is considered that the aforesaid Baker Johnson recover his seisin against the aforesaid Charles Brandt of the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances, and that the aforesaid Charles Brandt have of the Lands of the aforesaid William Rawlings to the value and so forth, and that the aforesaid William Rawlings be in mercy and so forth

And hereupon the aforesaid Baker Johnson prays the writ of the Lord proprietary to the Sheriff of Charles County to be directed, to cause to be delivered to him full seisin of the Lands aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances, and it is granted to him returnable here the second Tuesday of April next and so forth

Test Rezerdy Ghiselin Clk

Massey Leigh
William Brent

Maryland to wit. Command was given to the Sheriff of Saint Mary's County, that he should Command William Brent Gentleman, that justly and without delay he render unto Massey Leigh of Saint Mary's County planter, all that tract or parcell of plantable Land called and known by the names of the Loll or the White House Freehold containing fifty acres of Land lying and being in Saint Mary's County aforesaid with the appurtenances which he claimed to be his right and inheritance, and into which the said William Brent, had no entry, but after a disseisin which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to the aforesaid Massey Leigh within thirty years and so forth, and whereof the said Massey Leigh, complained that the said William Brent, had disseised him, and unless the same William Brent, should do the same and the said Massey Leigh should make you secure in prosecuting his clamour, then he should summon by good summoners the said William Brent, that he should be and appear before the Justices of his Lordships provencial Court at Annapolis the second Tuesday of September then next, and that he the said Sheriff should have then and there that writ &c.

At which said second Tuesday of September being the tenth day of the same month anno Domini seventeen hundred and seventy one, and the day of the return of the aforegoing writ, comes the aforesaid Massey Leigh in his proper person, and the Sheriff of (Saint)

Saint Mary's County to whom the same writ was made and directed, likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed to wit.

Pledges of prosecuting John Doe and Richard Roe
Summoners John Benn and Richard Fearn

Tho. Jennings, att'y Gen.

to answers John Addeson Sheriff

Saint Mary's County to wit. Massey Leigh of Saint Mary's County planter in his proper person demands against William Brent Gentleman, all that tract or parcell of plantable Land called and known by the names of the Loll or the White House Freehold containing fifty acres of Land, lying and being in Saint Mary's County aforesaid with the appurtenances as his right and inheritance and into which the said William Brent hath no entry, but after a disseisin which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without Judgment made to the aforesaid Massey Leigh within thirty years and so forth

And whereupon the said Massey Leigh saith that he was seised of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in his demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of our Lord the King that now is taking the profits thereof to the value and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit and so forth

And the aforesaid William Brent in his proper person comes and defends his right when and so forth, and voucheth thereof to warranty William Rawlings who is present here in Court in his proper person, and freely the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances to him the said William Brent doth warrant and so forth, and here upon the said Massey Leigh demands against the aforesaid William Rawlings tenant by his warranty the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances in form aforesaid and so forth: and whereupon he saith that he was seised of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of our Lord the King that now is taking the profits thereof to the value and so forth, and into which and so forth, and therefore he brings suit &c.

And the aforesaid William Rawlings Tenant by his warranty comes and defends his right when and so forth, and saith that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt did not disseise the aforesaid Massey Leigh of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances as the said Massey Leigh by his writ and Declaration aforesaid above doth complain, and of this he puts himself upon the Country and so forth - And the said Massey Leigh prays leave thereof to imparle, and he hath it &c. and afterwards the aforesaid Massey Leigh comes again here into Court in this same term in his proper person, and the aforesaid William Rawlings although solomnly called comes not but in contempt of the Court hath departed and makes Default. Therefore it is considered that the aforesaid Massey Leigh recover his seisin against the aforesaid William Brent of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances, and that the aforesaid William Brent have of the Lands of the aforesaid William Rawlings to the value &c. and that the aforesaid William Rawlings be in mercy &c. And hereupon the aforesaid Massey Leigh prays the writ of the Lord Proprietary to the Sheriff of Saint Mary's County to be directed to cause to be delivered to him full seisin of the Land aforesaid above demanded with the appurtenances, and it is granted to him returnable here the second Tuesday of April next &c.

Test Rezerdy Ghiselin Clk