564

September Term 1772.

At which said second Tuesday of September being the eighth day of the same month Anno Domini seventeen hundred and seventy two, and the day of the return of the aforegoing writ, comes here into his Lordships provincial Court, the aforesaid James Tilghman the third, in his proper person, and the sheriff of the County aforesaid to whom the same writ was made and directed, likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed to wit.

To the Honorable the Justices within mentioned, I humbly certify that by vertue of the within writ to me directed, I delivered unto the within named James Tilghman full seisen of the Land and premises within mentioned with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, as by the said writ I am Commanded —

so answers John Clapham sheriff
Test Rewerdy Ghiselin Cl.

7th

Samuel Wilson
vs
Isaac Coulbourne

Memorandum, The plaintiff sued out of this Lordships provincial Court, his Lordships writ of seisen, the tenor whereof ensues in the following words to wit.

Maryland to wit. Frederick absolute Lord and proprietary of the provinces of Maryland and Avalon, Lord Baron of Baltimore &c. To the sheriff of Somerset County Greeting: Know ye that Samuel Wilson, hath recovered against Isaac Coulbourne, his seisin of all those Tracts, parts of Tracts and parcels of plantable Land following to wit, one fifth part of two Tracts or parcels of Land called Brothers united, containing four hundred and five acres of Land, and Great Hope, containing one hundred and forty five acres which said two parcels of Land, are part of a Tract of Land called Double purchase and also all that Tract of Land called Great Hope, which was granted by patent of Confirmation unto the said Samuel Wilson containing seven hundred and seventy four acres and one half acre of Land, all which Tracts, parts of Tracts and parcels of Land are lying and being in Somerset County on the south side of Manokin Town in a Neck of Land called Revells Neck, with the appurtenances by our writ of Ejectment for diseisen enlopst, therefore command you that without delay you deliver unto the said Samuel Wilson, full seisen of the Lands aforesaid with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, and how you shall execute this writ, that you make known unto the Justices of our provincial Court to be held at Annapolis the second Tuesday of September instant, and have you then and there this writ. Witness John Leeds Esquire one of the Justices of our provincial Court the fourth day of May, in the 22d year of our Dominion &c. Anno Domini 1772.

Issued the 7th day of September 1772. Rewerdy Ghiselin Cl.

(the)

At which said second Tuesday of September being the eighth day of the same month Anno Domini seventeen hundred and seventy two, and the day of the return of the aforegoing writ, comes here into his Lordships provincial Court

565

September Term 1772.

the aforesaid Samuel Wilson, in his proper person, and the sheriff of the County aforesaid to whom the same writ was made and directed, likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here, thus endorsed to wit. —

Seisen delivered — so answers G Dashiell, sheriff
(Test) — Rewerdy Ghiselin Cl.

4th

James Holliday
vs
James Tilghman

Memorandum, The plaintiff sued out of this Lordships provincial Court, his Lordships writ of seisen the tenor whereof ensues in the following words to wit —

Maryland ss. Frederick absolute Lord and proprietary of the provinces of Maryland and Avalon, Lord Baron of Baltimore &c. To the sheriff of Talbot County, Greeting. Know ye that James Holliday, hath recovered against James Tilghman late of Talbot County, but now of the City of Philadelphia in the province of Pennsylvania Gentleman, his seisen of all that Tract or parcell of plantable Land called Fausley, lying in Talbot County aforesaid on the South East side of a river called Saint Michaels river, and on a small Branch of the said river called Fausley Branch, containing two hundred and fifty acres of Land with the appurtenances, thereunto belonging, all that parcell of plantable Land lying in Talbot County aforesaid contiguous to the said Land called Fausley, which is contained within and bounded by the following lines to wit, Beginning at the end of the second line of the said Land called Fausley, and running thence North seventy five perches, then west and by south five degrees Southerly one hundred and forty four perches, then south to the said Land called Fausley twenty five perches, then by and with the said Land called Fausley, East one hundred and fifty perches to the place of beginning, which same parcell of Land was heretofore sold by a certain Isaac Dixon late of Talbot County aforesaid deceased to Tench Frances, also deceased, containing fifty acres of Land with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, all that Tract or parcel of plantable Land called the Addition — lying in Talbot County aforesaid near the aforesaid Tract of Land called Fausley, which said Tract of Land called the Addition, was heretofore sold by John Edmondson, late of Talbot County aforesaid deceased to Winlock Christison, late of the same County, also deceased containing one hundred acres of Land with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, (and all that Tract or parcel of plantable Land Edmonds Range, lying in Talbot County aforesaid, near the Lands aforesaid, containing four hundred acres of Land, with the appurtenances by our writ of Ejectment for diseisen enlopst, and therefore command you that without delay you deliver unto the said James Holliday full seisen of the Lands aforesaid with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, and how you shall execute this writ that you make known unto the Justices of our provincial Court to be held at Annapolis the second Tuesday of September instant, and have you then and there this writ. — Witness John Leeds Esquire one of the Justices of our provincial Court the 4th day of May in the 22d year of our Dominion &c. Anno Domini 1772

Issued the 5th day of September 1772 — Rewerdy Ghiselin Cl.
(At)